

OSISOFT, LLC
POLICY FOR BUSINESS GIFTS, TRAVEL, AND ENTERTAINMENT OF FOREIGN OFFICIALS

JULY 17, 2013 (REV 01/27/2020)

Travel, Entertainment and Gifts-

The following Travel, Entertainment and Gifts policy is an addendum to OSISOFT's Policy Regarding Improper Influence of Foreign Officials. It is mandatory that all OSISOFT employees and anyone acting on OSISOFT's behalf (including distributors and resellers) follow this policy for all gifts, entertainment, or travel provided to Foreign Officials, as described below. However, if a stricter foreign law or statute is applicable, both this policy and such law or statute shall be applied. For instance, in case of providing gifts, travel, or entertainment to a Korean foreign official, compliance with this policy and Korea's Improper Solicitation and Graft Act shall be required. For details, please see the "Summary of the Improper Solicitation and Graft Act" (attached hereto as Exhibit 1).

Business Gifts, Travel, and Entertainment of Foreign Officials

A. WHO IS A FOREIGN OFFICIAL?

Foreign Official includes:

- Any officer or employee of a government or any department, agency, or public international organization, any employee of a public sector entity (as described below), or any person acting in an official capacity for or on behalf of any such government or entity.
- Members of royal families.
- Candidates for a political office.
- Immediate family members (parents, children, spouse, and in-laws), significant others, close friends, and business associates of a public sector employee.

A public sector entity is any entity that is owned or controlled by a government. This will include any entity where a government has greater than 50% ownership, or otherwise controls the entity. If you are unsure, you should consult OSISOFT's Compliance Officer for a determination as to whether an entity is government owned for purposes of this policy. In countries with a central government and pervasive ownership of companies in the petrochemical, telecommunications, water and/or power industry, you should assume that any entity you're dealing with is public sector.

B. WRITTEN PRE-APPROVAL REQUIREMENTS.

You must obtain written preapproval from 1) your Theater Vice President, and 2) Compliance Counsel prior to incurring any expense associated with the following:

- Providing travel and lodging to a Foreign Official.
- Providing a business gift or entertainment to a Foreign Official that exceeds the monetary or frequency limitations described below or otherwise does not comply with the below requirements.

If you wish to seek pre-approval, you need to provide the following information to your Theater Vice President, who will then seek approval from Compliance Counsel if they approve:

- A written statement describing the business purpose for the expenditure and the reason(s) for exceeding the policy limitations;
- A list of all attendees, their titles and their roles; If it's an event that OSIssoft is sponsoring you must provide:
 - the agenda for the entire event;
 - a list of all entertainment and other items of value that will be provided to all Foreign Officials; and
 - demonstrate that leisure time is proportionate and incidental to the time spent on business (generally no more than 20% of the event time); and that entertainment expenses during the event are reasonable and intended to facilitate the business purpose.

C. BUSINESS GIFTS TO FOREIGN OFFICIALS

You may give a business gift, defined as anything of value provided free of charge or without payment, to a Foreign Official if the following requirements are met: :

- The value of the gift is less than $100 USD;
- The recipient has not received a gift within the last six months;
- The gift is provided as a token of esteem, courtesy or in return for hospitality;
- The gift is not provided during a competitive bid process or contract negotiation, unless the gift is promotional material such as OSIssoft logo marketing items;

- A gift that includes the company's logo (e.g., pens, t-shirts, hats, mugs, ties, tote bag) is preferred.
- The gift is NOT cash or cash equivalent;
- The gift is presented openly with complete transparency.

You may provide meals or entertainment to a Foreign Official if the following requirements are met:

- The amount spent on behalf of the Foreign Official over any six month period is less than $150 USD and no single event exceeds $1,000 USD;

The entertainment paid for can be commonly deemed reasonable and is not excessive, lavish, or frequent; Sightseeing or other recreational activities during an OSIssoft sponsored trip are not allowed unless they are minimal and incidental in nature. A modest city sightseeing tour, for example, is allowed.

E. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS THAT APPLY TO BOTH BUSINESS GIFTS AND ENTERTAINMENT

- No gift or entertainment may be provided:
 - in direct exchange for a reciprocal action;
 - that is illegal, sexually explicit, or that may cause embarrassment to OSIssoft;

 - permitted under both local law and the guidelines of the public sector entity;
 - commensurate with local custom and appropriate for the occasion; and
 - recorded and supported by appropriate documentation in the employee's expense report and correctly recorded on the company's books and records.
